Our Story

Rococo Coffee Roasting was formed in 2008 by two friends who shared a vision for great coffee, strong community, and tireless service. For the past decade, Adam Olsen, Kent Beidel, and their dedicated team have focused on this recipe, cultivating a thriving coffee business in the heart of Kirkland, WA.

Rococo has since changed its name to Thruline Coffee Co. But, aside from that, not much is different than it was when we began. We still feel the customer experience and community connection are paramount, and work hard to demonstrate those values every day, in all we do.

At Thruline Coffee Co., we've been connecting community through coffee for over a decade.
